

Sport Coats Are in Greater Demand Than Ever

—and since you must have a Coat for cool evenings, cool days, or when you go on an outing, we would advise you to buy one of these new Coats, because it will answer a double purpose. Not alone are they made of materials that have just enough weight to keep the chill off, but they are also extremely fashionable. These are only two of the very many reasons why they deserve your attention. A visit to the Coat Section will supply the best reason of all.

Waist News of Interest

Our Waist stock presents so many attractive styles one would think we ought to get more money for a good many of them, but we would rather leave the value to you. We would rather sell a quantity at a small margin of profit than only a few and have to sell them at high prices.

You should see our Silk Waist values at $2.25, $2.98 and up. These have all the little touches of newness—are made of excellent quality materials, and they are going fast. Have you got yours?

Other Waists, of dainty, sheer Voiles, Organdie, Lawn, etc., embroidered and prettily trimmed with Laces. Priced at $1.00 and up.

Special Value in Matting Suit Cases at 98c each

We have three dozen of these Cases we are going to put out Saturday at this low price. They are in 24 and 26-inch sizes, strongly made, reinforced corners, brass lock and end clasps. A nice light Case for summer use.

See them in our window.

James Fordham of Montpelier pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning and went to jail for 10 days in lieu of paying the minimum fine and costs. Four bird stores of the second class were involved in the disclosure made to the judge by Gus Carlson of South Ryegate, who appeared in court for the sixth time within a short period. Carlson pleaded guilty to being an habitual drunkard and went to jail to serve the alternative of a $15 fine and costs.

Mate Jerkovich, a native of Trieste, who spoke fluently in Italian when addressed by the court interpreter, pleaded guilty, acknowledged a pandering offense when brought before Magistrate H. W. Scott at city hall this forenoon. Jerkovich, who said he came to Barre from Boston, was arrested in the south end in response to complaints from householders. On a pretext of selling pencils and pen wipers, it was charged by the officers, the man from Trieste was engaged in begging the street sums from house to house. Judge Scott suspended payment of a fine and costs and ordered Jerkovich to leave the state.

At the home of Mrs. Frank Cave on French street last evening, the Pansy class of the First Baptist church tendered a miscellaneous shower to one of their number, Miss Hazel Rollins, in honor of her approaching marriage. The house was prettily decorated in lavender and gold, the class colors. Crepe paper was festooned around the rooms, and ferns, lilies and yellow tulips formed the floral part of the decoration. In the hall was a lavender bell, trimmed with tinsel, and the merriment of the evening came when Miss Rollins had to mount a stepladder and secure the presents, which were fastened up in the bell. Each present was done up in yellow tissue paper, tied with lavender ribbon. Dainty refreshments of lavender punch, heart-shaped gold cakes, with lavender frosting, and wafers were served in the dining room. At a late hour the party broke up, all wishing Miss Rollins much happiness in the future.

FUTURE TEACHERS IN BANQUET.

Spaulding's Training Class Had a Jolly Time.

The training class of Spaulding high school held a banquet in their class room at the high school on Monday evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock. The room was decorated with flags and apple blossoms. The menu consisted of salads, rolls, olives, cold meat, cake, lemonade and lemon sherbet.

Each girl found at her plate an attractive place card uniquely descriptive of herself. Miss Jessica MacIver, the president of the training class, presided very gracefully as toastmistress. She gave the opening toast to "The Present," closing with the words: "You cannot change yesterday, that is clear."

Or begin to-morrow until it is here:

So the best thing for you and for me is to make to-night as sweet as can be." Miss Violet Brown responded to the toast, "The Past," which was a brief history of the joys and trials of the past year. Miss Inez Maherni gave "The Future," a witty and entertaining prophecy, which brought rounds of applause. "Modern Ruralities," was Miss Ruie Angell's subject. She gave an amusing picture of some of the trials of the country teacher, but portrayed also the happy and satisfying side of country life.

Miss Grace MacDonald gave a toast to "The Little Red Schoolhouse." Miss May Connor spoke on "Utilizing Physical Culture in the Country Schools." Mrs. Snyder gave a little poem, entitled, "Prophetic Limericks." Ellen Moran gave a tribute to "My Future School Board," thereby describing the ideal board that co-operates in all good movements for improving the schools.

Miss Agnes Donald gave a tribute to the Barre teachers, saying that her greatest wish for the girls was that they would do as much for the communities to which they were going as the Barre teachers are doing for Barre. The following toasts were also given: "The Primrose Path to Pedagogy," Miss Madeline Rogers; "Spinsters'hood," Ruth Humphrey; response, "Matrimony," Christine Graham; "My First Pupils," Nina Cassellini; "Our Class Motto," Ida Moruzzi; "What We Owe Vermont," Frances Finnegan; "Professional Ethics," Phyllis Vercoe; "T. T. C. I," Edith Reid.

Each one then received a mystical present, which proved to be a joke on the receiver, hitting off some interesting phase of her personality. The banquet closed with the singing of the class songs, tributes to Spaulding, written and set to music by members of the class, and the singing of "America."
